

Food South Australia Prize

This Prize has been established by the University in partnership with Food South Australia, which is the state's peak industry body representing the food and beverage manufacturing companies based in South Australia.

Food South Australia is keen to support graduates from the Food & Nutrition Science Program of the University by offering the Food South Australia Prize.

Prize recipients

Year	Winner
2021	Wen Dee Lee
2020	Savannah Alison Bitar
2019	Jacob Glen Wilson
2018	Tabitha Morgan
2017	Mitchell John Crisp

Prize rules

Value

Prize package (notional non-monetary value of $500) including:

- * A formal certificate
- * A feature story about the winner in Food South Australia's eNews
- * Invitations to Food South Australia events for a period of 12 months
- * Industry networking opportunities/industry introductions

Eligibility

The Prize will be awarded annually. To be eligible for the Prize, candidates must have successfully completed the Food & Nutrition Science Industry Placement course as part of the Bachelor of Food & Nutrition Science Level III program at the University of Adelaide in the year for which the Prize is awarded.

Candidate Selection

The winner will be determined by a Selection Panel consisting of:

- * Program Management Committee including the head of School (Chair or nominee)
- * Industry Placement Course Coordinators
- * A representative from Food South Australia and deemed by the Committee to be the best student who successfully completed the Food & Nutrition Science Industry Placement course taking into account academic merit and other qualities.

If there is no candidate of sufficient merit in a given year then the Prize Package will not be awarded in that year.

Variations

The University may vary the rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.

Last Updated 13/05/2022