

THE STAN EDMONDS PRIZE

In memory of Dr Stan Edmonds, his former colleagues and students donated funds to establish a prize to commemorate the long and significant association he had with the Department of Zoology. Dr Edmonds was a lecturer and reader from 1952 – 1974, remembered especially for his excellent teaching in first year Zoology.

This prize is awarded annually to the student who achieves the third highest aggregate marks in at least two Level I courses which include zoology in the Faculty of Sciences.

Prize recipients

Year
2021	Annabel Nettleton
2020	Natarsha McPherson
2019	Alice Miller
2018	Jia Yi Wong
2017	Tarryn Claire Davies
2016	Jack Steen
2015	Not awarded

THE STAN EDMONDS MEMORIAL PRIZE

Rules

Dr Stan Edmonds was a much loved Lecturer and ultimately Reader in the Department of Zoology from 1952 to 1974, remembered especially for his excellence in his teaching in first year Zoology. Following his death in 1995 former colleagues and students donated funds to establish a prize to commemorate the long and significant association he had with the Department.

This is an endowed prize with the capital held in the University's Endowment Fund¹ and the income distribution each year used to fund the prize.

The following rules now apply:

1. The prize shall be known as 'The Stan Edmonds Memorial Prize'.
2. The annual value of the prize shall be $200, or such other amount as the University shall from time to time determine provided that the value of the prize does not exceed the annual distribution of interest available from the Endowment Fund.
3. The prize shall be awarded annually to the student who achieves the third highest aggregate marks in at least 2 Level I courses which include zoology in the Faculty of Sciences.
4. If two or more students obtain an equal aggregate score then the prize shall be shared equally amongst them.
5. Any surplus income which is not awarded as part of this prize shall be added to the capital sum in the Endowment Fund from time to time.
6. The University may vary the rules from time to time in a manner consistent with the University's legal obligations and policies.

Rules approved by Deputy Vice-Chancellor and Vice-President (Academic) 17 August 2016

¹ For further information on the University's Endowment Fund and the distribution of interest available please see the Endowment Fund Investment Report