

THE ERIC RUDD MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Awarded annually to a higher degree geoscience student (MSc or PhD) at the University of Adelaide, studying mineral or petroleum exploration and intent on making a career in the resource industry. It is a travelling scholarship to the value of $5,000 pa, designed to enable students to spend periods of time at some of the best geoscience institutes, mine sites and other key geological locations, possibly in combination with presenting a paper at an international conference. A key selection criterion is the relevance and application of the intended travel program to the applicant's research project. The successful candidate will be expected to summarise the outcomes of their trip in an informal Geology and Geophysics seminar.
